In an effort to ensure that LoveWay can continue to sustain funding for our therapeutic equestrian services to area individuals with special needs, we are going to begin offering affordable riding lessons to able-bodied children. Classes will be taught by Erica Reid-Furkis, a 3rd -Level Dressage competitor and a NARHA certified riding instructor whose additional experience with western riding, hunt-seat, and gaited horse training provides her with a wealth of knowledge and experience to draw upon. Classes are geared toward children ages 5-10 and to those that have not had much exposure to horses. Emphasis will be placed on horsemanship, safe-handling, barn etiquette as well as riding skills. Sessions will be limited to four students to ensure maximum safety and enhanced learning for all participants.

Tuesday Sessions (6 weeks)

Begin April 14th and Run Through May 26th.

Classes run 3:45 to 5:15

Thursday Sessions (6 weeks)

Begin April 16 and Run Through May 28th.

Classes run 3:45 to 5:15

Registration Begins March 1st. The cost of registration is 10.00 per child. Registration must be completed by April 1 to ensure a space in the class.

The Cost of 6 Sessions is $180 if paid at the time of registration and $210 if paid after registration on a per session basis.
